The Parkside is everything a family could want. This 2-story, 4 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath home, sits right on the park. The impressive grand entry leads you into a large, open living room with a see-through fireplace into the Hearth Room. The Master Suite is on the main floor and has the ambiance of your favorite weekend getaway; with a claw foot tub and see-through fireplace, you'll never want to leave! An outdoor living space overlooking the park lets you entertain your guests in a beautiful, casual-elegant setting.

Austin-Taylor Homes, Inc. builds pride into each home, from framing to landscaping. Tom Haughton, owner/builder is a second-generation builder with more than 25 years experience in the building industry. Austin-Taylor Homes understands that houses must fit many lifestyles and therefore provide a variety of home designs for the discriminating homebuyer. Tom understands that to build an excellent home requires commitment by him to ensure that the craftsmen perform to the highest of standards and the finish work is superior.
