"I will enjoy my life" is the motto at the Mediterranean Villa. Why? Because life is carefree and the owners association handles exterior maintenance and landscaping, providing freedom to enjoy life. Each home has been designed for living. Our gallery of homes offers many choices to meet the needs of your family. Best of all, you can lock your door, go and have fun or travel without the worry of home maintenance. We have heard your wants and you will be impressed!

Tyson Pischel

Tyson Pischel is a native of the Tri-Cities and has been active in construction for the past 23 years, following his father into business. Integrity and quality production have always been their trademark. In addition, Pischel Construction is pioneering the widespread use of insulated concrete walls to build homes in the Tri-Cities. Benefits to the homeowner are low energy bills, superior indoor air quality from a unique air exchange system and protection from the elements. Tyson is committed to providing the most innovative and environmentally friendly homes for each buyer. This is definitely the case at The Mediterranean Villa TownHomes located in West Pasco. Pischel Construction is an award-winning member of the Home Builders Association.
