Upper Floor

This exquisite, 4,000 square foot home in beautiful Willowbrook Heights was custom designed with a Tuscan feel. Detailed antique stucco exterior and large pillars make a grand introduction. Inside, this home features a black wrought iron staircase in the foyer, double coffered ceiling in the dining area, custom granite countertops, tile floors, and butcher's block in the spectacular kitchen. This home is wired with the leading technology for home security and surround sound. The large master suite features a tile accented whirlpool jetted tub. The huge finished basement and fabulous deck with an expansive view are perfect for entertaining.

Ron Asmus Homes, Inc. is a local family business that specializes in custom homes and works closely with each homeowner to ensure satisfaction.
