Large covered patios, radius walls, and custom cabinetry distinguish this home as another example of StoneCrest Builders attention to detail and passion for quality.

Steve & Tracy LaMarr

It is a rare accomplishment for a builder when their name becomes synonymous with quality and integrity of design. StoneCrest Builders' signature on a custom home means just that. Company founder and president,

Tracy LaMarr (certified graduate master builder, NAHB), autographs each of her homes with excellence. Tracy was instrumental in founding the local Home Builders Association Sales and Marketing Council. She has given seminars on new construction through community education programs and at our annual HBA Home and Garden Show. Her commitment to our industry and strong sense of ethics remains the foundation for StoneCrest Builders, Inc.
