

Universal Home Builders, LLC

1478 Chardonnay Drive, Applewood Estates
Richland

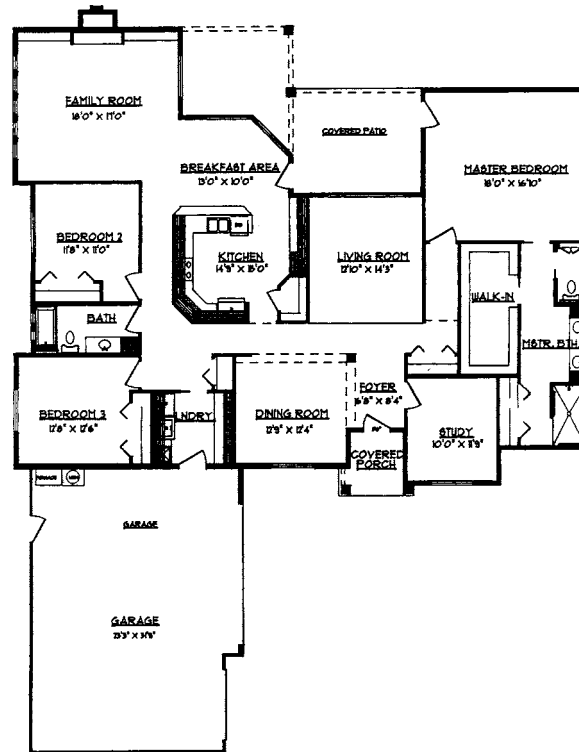

Welcome to the custom home of the Zimmermans. Beyond the beautiful stucco façade, the central living room extends a warm welcome with deep rich color tones. The spacious kitchen features cherry cabinetry and granite countertops. Expansive use of tile flows throughout, including a beautiful inlaid design in the foyer. The master bathroom boasts a walk-in shower with numerous shower heads and massaging jets plus an enormous walk-in closet. Living areas are clustered around a large lanai to enjoy outdoor entertaining. 2,650 square feet of spacious living.

Dave Schlotfeldt

A carpenter by trade, Dave Schlotfeldt, owner/builder, is an accomplished craftsman and has earned the "Aging in Place Specialist" designation from the NAHB. Dave began specializing in universal design because he saw the importance of making homes more functional. When you include universal design features in your new home it becomes more user-friendly for you, your family, and your future. Dave often incorporates wider halls and doorways, step-free entrances, larger kitchens, and spacious bathrooms. These features increase the usefulness of your home for everyone, not to mention a broader range of appeal when you sell. Universal design links present needs to future needs, building for today and tomorrow.

(509) 947-8165 • universalhomebuilders.com